Child HELP Foundation will present John Flynn in Concert for children at 2 p.m. on June 6, 2009 at the Modern Maturity Center. John Flynn, a native of Philadelphia is a singer and song writer who has appeared regularly on the Peabody Award-winning children's radio program, "Kid's Corner". Last summer, he was featured in New York City's Madison Square Garden "Kids' Series" and has upcoming children shows at Appel Farm and Longwood Gardens.

This concert is presented by Child HELP to provide an opportunity for all children in general and children with disabilities in particular in our community to be exposed to first class children's entertainment enjoyed by countless children in other parts of the country. This is a part of the mission of the Foundation, according to Dr. Basilio N. Bautista, President of the Foundation, to encourage encounter socially among children whether they have special needs or not. Children with special needs will be admitted FREE to the event, however, they should obtain the complimentary tickets from the designated places to assure them of seats.

Child HELP Foundation is a not for profit charitable community organization established to promote Health and Nutrition, special education and social opportunities to help enhance the quality of life, and help develop the potential of children with special needs in Kent County, by raising funds to be disbursed as grants to other non-profit organizations that serve them.
